Working Vocabulary

What's the best job you've ever had? Work can be challenging but rewarding when they help us feel confident and make a difference for the people around us.

What kinds of nuučaañuł words can we learn when talking about our work? Let's practice our mamuuk vocabulary with these language activities. Visit Ucluelet dialect domain sets (<https://bit.ly/3qhKrFK>), FirstVoices (<https://bit.ly/35L7UWj>), or ask a fluent language speaker from your community to help you.

Activity #1: Dressing for Work

ʔaqičičsimḥakʔaala hiḥʔiitqak mamuuk—what do you have to wear at work?

Can you help my friends get dressed for work?

For each of the jobs below, use nuučaañuł vocabulary to name at least 3 articles of clothing or pieces of equipment they should be bringing to work. You can list these items in point-form and use the extra space to draw the items on your list.

siqiiḥsi (cook)

čičsʔaqḷ (fisher)
